

12

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION
Washington 25, D.C.

HOLD FOR RELEASE
UNTIL 7 PM (EST)
TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1951

U.S. CASUALTIES IN KOREAN AREA (NO. 243)

The Department of Defense today announced the following casualties in the Korean area:

ILLINOIS

Killed in Action

ARMY:

Private First Class Peter Vilutis, Jr., son of Mr. & Mrs. Pete Vilutis, Sr., 3608 South Halsted St., Chicago.

MARINE CORPS

Private First Class Milton R. Lawhorn, brother of James M. Lawhorn, 1054 East Cleveland, Decatur.

Wounded

ARMY:

Corporal Charles J. Eisenhardt, brother of Mrs. Elsie Fischer, 3722 South Winchester Ave., Chicago.

Private First Class Walter C. Fort, son of Mr. & Mrs. William Fort, 1841 North Lincoln Ave., Chicago.

Sergeant Frederick W. Heedt, son of Mrs. Joan Heedt, 2359 South Leavitt St., Chicago.

Master Sergeant Marion M. Hines, son of Otis G. Hines, 2420 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago.

Private Arthur Jackson, Jr., husband of Mrs. Patricia A. Jackson, 353 West 94th Place, Chicago.

Private Lawrence F. McCabe, nephew of Mrs. Lydia Falsey, 3733 West 81st St., Chicago.

Private First Class Gordon W. Pruitt, son of Goble W. Pruitt, 100 East Broadway Ave., Mattoon.

Corporal Robert D. Scott, son of Mrs. Fairel M. Scott, Route 3, Fairfield.

Private First Class Ralph W. Weston, husband of Mrs. Betty J. Weston, Box 58A, Route 1, East Carondelet.

NAVY:

Donald Eugene Wells, Hospital Apprentice, husband of Mrs. Joan T. Wells, 1909 Keeler Ave., Chicago.

Injured

ARMY:

Sergeant Donald P. Konkowski, husband of Mrs. Harriet Konkowski, 6231 West Fletcher St., Chicago.

E N D